

Social and Personal

A very large and enthusiastic meeting of the Richmond Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, was held yesterday afternoon in Lee Camp Hall, with Mrs. Norman V. Randolph in the chair. Membership blanks were presented by the president, Mrs. Edgar D. Taylor, four new members, Mrs. Edgar D. Taylor, treasurer of the Jefferson Davis Monument Association, reported that the association was looking forward to results from the sale of well advertised pictures and buttons.

The chairman of the Stuart Monument Association reported $125 turned over to the veterans, and $75 in bank. Each member of the chapter was requested to send a contribution to Mrs. Randolph, No. 611 East Franklin Street, for the rummage sale, to be held by the Daughters in May. The Daughters are now arranging for a very unique and interesting entertainment, to be given for the benefit of the Stuart Monument Association, the details of which will be announced later.

A pleasant letter was read from Mrs. Wright, the president of the Baltimore Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, returning with thanks the $25 sent by the Richmond Chapter to aid Baltimore sufferers from the recent fire. Mrs. Wright was assured by the Mayor of Baltimore that the appropriation made by the Maryland Legislature was sufficient for the present, and the contribution sent was not needed.

The corresponding secretary was directed to write a letter of sympathy to Mrs. H. A. Menor, the efficient recording secretary of the chapter, on the death of her mother, Mrs. Perkins.

Concert This Evening.

At the concert to be given at 8:30 o'clock this evening, in the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association, by the choir of Grace Episcopal Church, for the benefit of the organ fund of that church, the following delightful program will be presented:

1. Solo, selected—Mr. Roe C. Tupman.
2. Solo—a. Jean, Burleigh; b. L'Esclava, Lala—Miss Mabel Wardo McEln.
3. Solo—a. Autumn; b. Spring, Wall—Miss Lily N. Urquhart.
4. Solo, The Two Grenadiers, Schumann—Mr. Roger O. Conant.
5. Solo, violin—Romanza, Helz—Mrs. C. G. Hequemour.
6. Solo, Ocean, Thon Mighty Monster, Weber—Mrs. H. C. McGehee.

The presentation of a sacred cantata, "The Holy City," by Alfred R. Gaul, which will follow the solos, will also show two parts. The soloists will be Mrs. W. H. O. McGehee, Miss Mabel Wardo McEln, Mr. Roe C. Tupman, and Mr. Selden Walker. The chorus of fifty voices will be directed by Dr. W. H. O. McGehee. Miss Mary Shelton will be pianist and Mr. William M. Jenkins organist. Part first and second will be as follows:

PART I—CONTEMPLATION.

- No. 1. Introduction.
- No. 2. Chorus—"No Shadows Yonder."
- Tenor Solo—"No Weeping Yonder."
- Quartette (unaccompanied)—"No Partings Yonder."
- Chorus—"No Weeping Yonder."

PART II—EXULTATION.

- No. 2. Air (tenor)—"My Soul is Afloat for God."
- No. 4. Trio (unaccompanied)—"At Evening Tide I Shall Not Light."
- No. 5. Chorus—"They That Sow in Tears."
- No. 6. Air (contralto)—"Eye Hath Not Seen."
- No. 7. Chorus—"For Thee, O Dear, Dear Country."
- No. 8. Chorus—"Thine is the Kingdom."

PART III—CORORATION.

- No. 10. Solo (bass) and Choral Sanctus—A New Heaven and a New Earth.
- No. 11a. Chorus for a Double Choir—"Let the Heavens Rejoice."
- No. 11b. Air (tenor)—"To the Lord, Our God."
- No. 12a. Air (contralto)—"Come Ye Blessed."
- No. 12b. Semi-Chorus (unaccompanied)—"The Pining Pot Is of Silver."
- No. 13. Air (soprano)—"These Are They Which Came."
- No. 14. Duet—"They Shall Hunger No More."
- No. 15. Quartette and Chorus (women's voices only)—"List! the Cherubim Host."
- Bass Solo—"I Heard the Voice of Harpers."
- No. 16. Chorus—"Great and Marvelous Are Thy Works."

Prayer—Hymn—Scripture Reading—Prayer.

Grand Chorus in March Form—Gull-mantle—Lorel.

Prelude at Cullene—Rousseau.

Song, The Publican—Van De Water, Mr. R. Murray Hunter.

Noel, In Paradisum, Fughetta—Dubols.

Barcarole, The Angel—Volatons from Cavalleria Rusticana—Mrs. Clifton Miller.

Bridal Song—Goldmark.

Andante, Cantabile—Seligowski.

Andante, Cantabile—March—Gounod.

Bazaar for Chimborazo Hospital.

What promises to be one of the events of the season will be the "Bazaar" held by the board of lady managers of Chimborazo Hospital, April 18th-23d, inclusive, at No. 7 East Broad Street.

The president, Mrs. C. W. Massie, has surrounded herself with a bevy of ladies whose untiring efforts will make the "Bazaar" a grand success. They are Mesdames Harbaugh, P. J. White, H. J. Nuckels, Robert Currie, C. J. Billups, M. W. Peyser, Harvey L. Davis, Hiram Anderson, R. A. Talley, W. A. Crump, H. New, Joseph Carter, W. H. Parker, Aaron Greenwald, G. T. Talley, Thomas Palmatorty, W. S. Beazley, Terrell Geo, J. W. Anderson, J. P. Williams, Hugh L. Davis, W. A. Cheatewood, Gria George, Thomas Hancock, Hamilton, James El-Jott, W. L. Brittle, Linda Cosby, A. W. Bennett, I. H. Clark, Courtney, Katharine Klink, Oscar Parrish, Percy Smith, Charles Smith, Nelson, Rogers, Louis Wazner, O. D. James, A. C. Stevenson, E. Brauer and Miss Mcweeney.

There will be different forms of entertainment each night and an unusually attractive programme has been arranged for Monday night.

The afternoons will be devoted to children's amusements, such as bubble parties and peanut hunts.

Luncheon, comprising all the delicacies of the season, will be served throughout the day and evening, and fancy articles of all descriptions, home-made candles, ice cream and cake will be on sale.

Dramatic Recital and Musicals.

In the Woman's Club this evening at 8:30 o'clock, the Richmond School Expression, under the direction of Mr. W. L. Thurston, will give an enjoyable entertainment for the benefit of the Christian Women's Board of Missions and "In His Name" Circle of Seventh Street Christian Church. The graduates of the school will participate in the programme, which promises much in the way of recitals, music and pantomime. A feature of the evening will be the singing of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Clowes.

De Treville—Hunter.

The wedding of Miss Slinguff Hunter, of Baltimore, and Mr. John L. de Treville, of Richmond, will be celebrated this evening at 7 o'clock in the home of the bride, "Beach Hill," Walbrook, Md.

The Rev. Father Burr, of Baltimore, will officiate, assisted by the Rev. Father Hamilton, of this city. Miss Minnie Whitman will be maid of honor, and Miss Ella Slinguff, Miss Eleanor Hunter, Miss Valerie Slinguff, of Baltimore; Miss Louise Jenkins, of New York; Miss Maudie Slinguff, of Gloucester; Miss Bessie Brady, of Baltimore, all first cousins of the bride, will be her bridesmaids.

Mr. De Treville will be attended by his best man, Mr. A. Lyndon Woodland, of Newark, N. J., and by his groomsmen—Mr. C. H. Montague, Mr. A. B. Tanner, Mr. J. H. Grant, of Richmond; Mr. Graville Smith, Mr. Frank Whitman and Mr. Page Hunter, of Baltimore. Little Miss Dorothy Slinguff will act as flower girl.

After the ceremony a reception will be given the young couple, at which a number of Richmond guests will be present. Mr. and Mrs. De Treville will take a short trip North, after which they will return to make Richmond their future home. Miss Hunter is well known in Richmond, having made several visits here and gained many friends in the so doing. Mr. De Treville is very popular both in business and society, and much interest is felt in Richmond concerning the wedding.

Captain Skipwith's Soldiers.

The company of young ladies, which has been trained so splendidly by Captain George N. Skipwith, will appear in a military drill, to be given this evening in the lecture-room of Broad Street Methodist Episcopal Church, for the benefit of the Parsonage Society.

The roster of the company shows the following names: Miss Ethel Briggs, Captain; Miss Josephine Christian, first lieutenant; Miss Lillie Randall, second lieutenant; Miss Belle Burch, Miss Earl Burton, Miss Cora Briggs, Miss Grace Briggs, Miss Blanche Booth, Miss Carrie Ellerson, Miss Lily Forbes, Miss Annie May Maupin, Miss Lina Montgomery, Miss Lora Parsons, Miss Ada Phillips, Miss Kate Phillips, Miss Mary Taylor, Miss Mabel Russell, Miss Grace Slaughter, Miss Eva Slaughter, Miss Frances Shaver, Miss Lillian Shaw, Miss Florence Wood and Miss Ethel Yeomans.

Very pretty and becoming uniforms will show white blouse suits, the skirts with flat bands of red and the blouses trimmed with the red bands and military buttons. Military hats will be worn and United States flags will be carried by these charming soldier maidens.

Miss Briggs, the captain, will be altogether in white, decorated with gold braid. She will have a soft felt hat and will carry a sword.

After the drill some entertaining recitations will be given by Mrs. Jennie Yeomans, and refreshments will be offered for sale.

Organ Recital.

To-morrow, Friday, evening, at 8:15 o'clock, Mr. Leslie P. Watson will give an organ recital at the First Baptist Church.

He will be assisted by Mrs. Clifton Miller, soprano, and Mr. R. Murray Hunter, baritone. The recital is intended for the entertainment and instruction of the pupils of Mr. and Mrs. Watson, but the doors will be open to the public, and no admission fee will be charged. The programme is given here:

Wilson—Tanner.

The marriage of two very popular young Richmond people, Miss Ruth Tanner and Mr. Norvell Knox Wilson, will take place very quietly at 1 P. M. today, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Northam Tanner, of No. 106 Floyd Avenue.

Pleasant Reception.

A very brilliant and exceedingly pleasant reception was given last evening by Governor and Mrs. Andrew J. Montague at the Executive Mansion in honor of Dr. Albert Shaw, the distinguished editor of the Review of Reviews, who delivered the address on Thomas Jefferson before the Phi Beta Kappa Society in the Capitol last night, and is the guest of Governor and Mrs. Montague while here.

Many of the representative people of the city had the pleasure of meeting Dr. Shaw, and the reception was a delightful affair. Decorations were in Easter lilies and palms. Thaw's orchestra played appropriate selections and the refreshments served were exceedingly delicate and delicious.

Personal Mention.

Miss Laura Knowles, sister of the late Clarence Knowles, of Atlanta, and a very charming woman, is the guest of Mrs. E. H. Clowes, at No. 18 South Third Street. Miss Knowles, who is on her way to attend the Whist Congress, will soon convene in Baltimore, was the guest of the Milton C. Work Whist Club Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Edward N. Newman is visiting the family of Judge J. M. Crute, at Farmville, Va.

The Commonwealth Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold their regular meeting Friday, April 16th, at noon, in No. 24 West Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Luther Burruss have sent out cards for the marriage of their daughter, Roberta Blanton, to Mr. M. Norvell Anderson.

The ceremony will be performed April 27th at 4:45 o'clock, in the Baptist Church at Fredericksburg, Va. The young couple will make their home at No. 712 East Leigh Street, after May 10th. Mr. Anderson is connected in business with the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Portland, Maine.

Mrs. L. P. Nelson is visiting Mrs. W. O. Neal, at No. 97 West Grace Street.

Miss Charlotte Poythress has returned from Washington, D. C., where she spent Easter week.

The board of managers of the Virginia Home for Incubable will meet Tuesday next at 11 A. M. to perfect arrangements for a concert which will be given in May for the benefit of the Home. Through the kindness of Colonel and Mrs. John Murphy, the concert will take place in the assembly hall of Murphy's Hotel.

Mrs. W. T. Patton, of Newport News, Va., is visiting Mrs. O. A. Crutshaw, at No. 205 East Main Street.

Miss Zaida English was a bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Marie Reynolds to Mr. Saxon W. Holt, which was celebrated in the Presbyterian Church, of Newport News, Va., Tuesday night.

Mr. J. C. Bristow and Miss Callie G. Mercer, who were married in Weldon, N. C., last Thursday morning, have returned to the city, and are at the home of Mrs. Bristow, Dr. Charles A. Mercer, No. 395 East Main Street, where they will be for a few days before proceeding to the home of Mr. Bristow, at Saluda, Va.

Mrs. Sparks W. Melton, little son, Carroll, and nurse, of Augusta, Ga., arrived in the city yesterday to spend two weeks with Mrs. Melton's parents, Dr. and Mrs. James Nelson, of the Woman's College.

Miss Stella Einstein, of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting Mrs. H. B. Wallerstein, No. 200 South Third Street.

Street Christian Church. The graduates of the school will participate in the programme, which promises much in the way of recitals, music and pantomime. A feature of the evening will be the singing of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Clowes.

De Treville—Hunter.

The wedding of Miss Slinguff Hunter, of Baltimore, and Mr. John L. de Treville, of Richmond, will be celebrated this evening at 7 o'clock in the home of the bride, "Beach Hill," Walbrook, Md.

The Rev. Father Burr, of Baltimore, will officiate, assisted by the Rev. Father Hamilton, of this city. Miss Minnie Whitman will be maid of honor, and Miss Ella Slinguff, Miss Eleanor Hunter, Miss Valerie Slinguff, of Baltimore; Miss Louise Jenkins, of New York; Miss Maudie Slinguff, of Gloucester; Miss Bessie Brady, of Baltimore, all first cousins of the bride, will be her bridesmaids.

Mr. De Treville will be attended by his best man, Mr. A. Lyndon Woodland, of Newark, N. J., and by his groomsmen—Mr. C. H. Montague, Mr. A. B. Tanner, Mr. J. H. Grant, of Richmond; Mr. Graville Smith, Mr. Frank Whitman and Mr. Page Hunter, of Baltimore. Little Miss Dorothy Slinguff will act as flower girl.

After the ceremony a reception will be given the young couple, at which a number of Richmond guests will be present. Mr. and Mrs. De Treville will take a short trip North, after which they will return to make Richmond their future home. Miss Hunter is well known in Richmond, having made several visits here and gained many friends in the so doing. Mr. De Treville is very popular both in business and society, and much interest is felt in Richmond concerning the wedding.

Captain Skipwith's Soldiers.

The company of young ladies, which has been trained so splendidly by Captain George N. Skipwith, will appear in a military drill, to be given this evening in the lecture-room of Broad Street Methodist Episcopal Church, for the benefit of the Parsonage Society.

The roster of the company shows the following names: Miss Ethel Briggs, Captain; Miss Josephine Christian, first lieutenant; Miss Lillie Randall, second lieutenant; Miss Belle Burch, Miss Earl Burton, Miss Cora Briggs, Miss Grace Briggs, Miss Blanche Booth, Miss Carrie Ellerson, Miss Lily Forbes, Miss Annie May Maupin, Miss Lina Montgomery, Miss Lora Parsons, Miss Ada Phillips, Miss Kate Phillips, Miss Mary Taylor, Miss Mabel Russell, Miss Grace Slaughter, Miss Eva Slaughter, Miss Frances Shaver, Miss Lillian Shaw, Miss Florence Wood and Miss Ethel Yeomans.

Very pretty and becoming uniforms will show white blouse suits, the skirts with flat bands of red and the blouses trimmed with the red bands and military buttons. Military hats will be worn and United States flags will be carried by these charming soldier maidens.

Miss Briggs, the captain, will be altogether in white, decorated with gold braid. She will have a soft felt hat and will carry a sword.

After the drill some entertaining recitations will be given by Mrs. Jennie Yeomans, and refreshments will be offered for sale.

Organ Recital.

To-morrow, Friday, evening, at 8:15 o'clock, Mr. Leslie P. Watson will give an organ recital at the First Baptist Church.

He will be assisted by Mrs. Clifton Miller, soprano, and Mr. R. Murray Hunter, baritone. The recital is intended for the entertainment and instruction of the pupils of Mr. and Mrs. Watson, but the doors will be open to the public, and no admission fee will be charged. The programme is given here:

Wilson—Tanner.

The marriage of two very popular young Richmond people, Miss Ruth Tanner and Mr. Norvell Knox Wilson, will take place very quietly at 1 P. M. today, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Northam Tanner, of No. 106 Floyd Avenue.

Pleasant Reception.

A very brilliant and exceedingly pleasant reception was given last evening by Governor and Mrs. Andrew J. Montague at the Executive Mansion in honor of Dr. Albert Shaw, the distinguished editor of the Review of Reviews, who delivered the address on Thomas Jefferson before the Phi Beta Kappa Society in the Capitol last night, and is the guest of Governor and Mrs. Montague while here.

Many of the representative people of the city had the pleasure of meeting Dr. Shaw, and the reception was a delightful affair. Decorations were in Easter lilies and palms. Thaw's orchestra played appropriate selections and the refreshments served were exceedingly delicate and delicious.

Personal Mention.

Miss Laura Knowles, sister of the late Clarence Knowles, of Atlanta, and a very charming woman, is the guest of Mrs. E. H. Clowes, at No. 18 South Third Street. Miss Knowles, who is on her way to attend the Whist Congress, will soon convene in Baltimore, was the guest of the Milton C. Work Whist Club Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Edward N. Newman is visiting the family of Judge J. M. Crute, at Farmville, Va.

The Commonwealth Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold their regular meeting Friday, April 16th, at noon, in No. 24 West Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Luther Burruss have sent out cards for the marriage of their daughter, Roberta Blanton, to Mr. M. Norvell Anderson.

The ceremony will be performed April 27th at 4:45 o'clock, in the Baptist Church at Fredericksburg, Va. The young couple will make their home at No. 712 East Leigh Street, after May 10th. Mr. Anderson is connected in business with the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Portland, Maine.

Mrs. L. P. Nelson is visiting Mrs. W. O. Neal, at No. 97 West Grace Street.

Miss Charlotte Poythress has returned from Washington, D. C., where she spent Easter week.

The board of managers of the Virginia Home for Incubable will meet Tuesday next at 11 A. M. to perfect arrangements for a concert which will be given in May for the benefit of the Home. Through the kindness of Colonel and Mrs. John Murphy, the concert will take place in the assembly hall of Murphy's Hotel.

Mrs. W. T. Patton, of Newport News, Va., is visiting Mrs. O. A. Crutshaw, at No. 205 East Main Street.

Miss Zaida English was a bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Marie Reynolds to Mr. Saxon W. Holt, which was celebrated in the Presbyterian Church, of Newport News, Va., Tuesday night.

Mr. J. C. Bristow and Miss Callie G. Mercer, who were married in Weldon, N. C., last Thursday morning, have returned to the city, and are at the home of Mrs. Bristow, Dr. Charles A. Mercer, No. 395 East Main Street, where they will be for a few days before proceeding to the home of Mr. Bristow, at Saluda, Va.

Mrs. Sparks W. Melton, little son, Carroll, and nurse, of Augusta, Ga., arrived in the city yesterday to spend two weeks with Mrs. Melton's parents, Dr. and Mrs. James Nelson, of the Woman's College.

Miss Stella Einstein, of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting Mrs. H. B. Wallerstein, No. 200 South Third Street.

Street Christian Church. The graduates of the school will participate in the programme, which promises much in the way of recitals, music and pantomime. A feature of the evening will be the singing of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Clowes.

De Treville—Hunter.

The wedding of Miss Slinguff Hunter, of Baltimore, and Mr. John L. de Treville, of Richmond, will be celebrated this evening at 7 o'clock in the home of the bride, "Beach Hill," Walbrook, Md.

The Rev. Father Burr, of Baltimore, will officiate, assisted by the Rev. Father Hamilton, of this city. Miss Minnie Whitman will be maid of honor, and Miss Ella Slinguff, Miss Eleanor Hunter, Miss Valerie Slinguff, of Baltimore; Miss Louise Jenkins, of New York; Miss Maudie Slinguff, of Gloucester; Miss Bessie Brady, of Baltimore, all first cousins of the bride, will be her bridesmaids.

Mr. De Treville will be attended by his best man, Mr. A. Lyndon Woodland, of Newark, N. J., and by his groomsmen—Mr. C. H. Montague, Mr. A. B. Tanner, Mr. J. H. Grant, of Richmond; Mr. Graville Smith, Mr. Frank Whitman and Mr. Page Hunter, of Baltimore. Little Miss Dorothy Slinguff will act as flower girl.

After the ceremony a reception will be given the young couple, at which a number of Richmond guests will be present. Mr. and Mrs. De Treville will take a short trip North, after which they will return to make Richmond their future home. Miss Hunter is well known in Richmond, having made several visits here and gained many friends in the so doing. Mr. De Treville is very popular both in business and society, and much interest is felt in Richmond concerning the wedding.

Captain Skipwith's Soldiers.

The company of young ladies, which has been trained so splendidly by Captain George N. Skipwith, will appear in a military drill, to be given this evening in the lecture-room of Broad Street Methodist Episcopal Church, for the benefit of the Parsonage Society.

The roster of the company shows the following names: Miss Ethel Briggs, Captain; Miss Josephine Christian, first lieutenant; Miss Lillie Randall, second lieutenant; Miss Belle Burch, Miss Earl Burton, Miss Cora Briggs, Miss Grace Briggs, Miss Blanche Booth, Miss Carrie Ellerson, Miss Lily Forbes, Miss Annie May Maupin, Miss Lina Montgomery, Miss Lora Parsons, Miss Ada Phillips, Miss Kate Phillips, Miss Mary Taylor, Miss Mabel Russell, Miss Grace Slaughter, Miss Eva Slaughter, Miss Frances Shaver, Miss Lillian Shaw, Miss Florence Wood and Miss Ethel Yeomans.

Very pretty and becoming uniforms will show white blouse suits, the skirts with flat bands of red and the blouses trimmed with the red bands and military buttons. Military hats will be worn and United States flags will be carried by these charming soldier maidens.

Miss Briggs, the captain, will be altogether in white, decorated with gold braid. She will have a soft felt hat and will carry a sword.

After the drill some entertaining recitations will be given by Mrs. Jennie Yeomans, and refreshments will be offered for sale.

Organ Recital.

To-morrow, Friday, evening, at 8:15 o'clock, Mr. Leslie P. Watson will give an organ recital at the First Baptist Church.

He will be assisted by Mrs. Clifton Miller, soprano, and Mr. R. Murray Hunter, baritone. The recital is intended for the entertainment and instruction of the pupils of Mr. and Mrs. Watson, but the doors will be open to the public, and no admission fee will be charged. The programme is given here:

Wilson—Tanner.

The marriage of two very popular young Richmond people, Miss Ruth Tanner and Mr. Norvell Knox Wilson, will take place very quietly at 1 P. M. today, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Northam Tanner, of No. 106 Floyd Avenue.

Pleasant Reception.

A very brilliant and exceedingly pleasant reception was given last evening by Governor and Mrs. Andrew J. Montague at the Executive Mansion in honor of Dr. Albert Shaw, the distinguished editor of the Review of Reviews, who delivered the address on Thomas Jefferson before the Phi Beta Kappa Society in the Capitol last night, and is the guest of Governor and Mrs. Montague while here.

Many of the representative people of the city had the pleasure of meeting Dr. Shaw, and the reception was a delightful affair. Decorations were in Easter lilies and palms. Thaw's orchestra played appropriate selections and the refreshments served were exceedingly delicate and delicious.

Personal Mention.

Miss Laura Knowles, sister of the late Clarence Knowles, of Atlanta, and a very charming woman, is the guest of Mrs. E. H. Clowes, at No. 18 South Third Street. Miss Knowles, who is on her way to attend the Whist Congress, will soon convene in Baltimore, was the guest of the Milton C. Work Whist Club Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Edward N. Newman is visiting the family of Judge J. M. Crute, at Farmville, Va.

The Commonwealth Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold their regular meeting Friday, April 16th, at noon, in No. 24 West Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Luther Burruss have sent out cards for the marriage of their daughter, Roberta Blanton, to Mr. M. Norvell Anderson.

The ceremony will be performed April 27th at 4:45 o'clock, in the Baptist Church at Fredericksburg, Va. The young couple will make their home at No. 712 East Leigh Street, after May 10th. Mr. Anderson is connected in business with the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Portland, Maine.

Mrs. L. P. Nelson is visiting Mrs. W. O. Neal, at No. 97 West Grace Street.

Miss Charlotte Poythress has returned from Washington, D. C., where she spent Easter week.

The board of managers of the Virginia Home for Incubable will meet Tuesday next at 11 A. M. to perfect arrangements for a concert which will be given in May for the benefit of the Home. Through the kindness of Colonel and Mrs. John Murphy, the concert will take place in the assembly hall of Murphy's Hotel.

Mrs. W. T. Patton, of Newport News, Va., is visiting Mrs. O. A. Crutshaw, at No. 205 East Main Street.

Miss Zaida English was a bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Marie Reynolds to Mr. Saxon W. Holt, which was celebrated in the Presbyterian Church, of Newport News, Va., Tuesday night.

Mr. J. C. Bristow and Miss Callie G. Mercer, who were married in Weldon, N. C., last Thursday morning, have returned to the city, and are at the home of Mrs. Bristow, Dr. Charles A. Mercer, No. 395 East Main Street, where they will be for a few days before proceeding to the home of Mr. Bristow, at Saluda, Va.

Mrs. Sparks W. Melton, little son, Carroll, and nurse, of Augusta, Ga., arrived in the city yesterday to spend two weeks with Mrs. Melton's parents, Dr. and Mrs. James Nelson, of the Woman's College.

Miss Stella Einstein, of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting Mrs. H. B. Wallerstein, No. 200 South Third Street.

Street Christian Church. The graduates of the school will participate in the programme, which promises much in the way of recitals, music and pantomime. A feature of the evening will be the singing of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Clowes.

De Treville—Hunter.

The wedding of Miss Slinguff Hunter, of Baltimore, and Mr. John L. de Treville, of Richmond, will be celebrated this evening at 7 o'clock in the home of the bride, "Beach Hill," Walbrook, Md.

The Rev. Father Burr, of Baltimore, will officiate, assisted by the Rev. Father Hamilton, of this city. Miss Minnie Whitman will be maid of honor, and Miss Ella Slinguff, Miss Eleanor Hunter, Miss Valerie Slinguff, of Baltimore; Miss Louise Jenkins, of New York; Miss Maudie Slinguff, of Gloucester; Miss Bessie Brady, of Baltimore, all first cousins of the bride, will be her bridesmaids.

Mr. De Treville will be attended by his best man, Mr. A. Lyndon Woodland, of Newark, N. J., and by his groomsmen—Mr. C. H. Montague, Mr. A. B. Tanner, Mr. J. H. Grant, of Richmond; Mr. Graville Smith, Mr. Frank Whitman and Mr. Page Hunter, of Baltimore. Little Miss Dorothy Slinguff will act as flower girl.

After the ceremony a reception will be given the young couple, at which a number of Richmond guests will be present. Mr. and Mrs. De Treville will take a short trip North, after which they will return to make Richmond their future home. Miss Hunter is well known in Richmond, having made several visits here and gained many friends in the so doing. Mr. De Treville is very popular both in business and society, and much interest is felt in Richmond concerning the wedding.

Captain Skipwith's Soldiers.

The company of young ladies, which has been